Expanding Access to the Los Angeles Philharmonic's: "Tchaikovsky's Fourth Symphony" Performance for Third District Residents 2026

The Los Angeles Philharmonic, in partnership with the Office of Supervisor Lindsey P. Horvath, invites community members to experience world-class orchestral music on Friday, November 13, 2026, at 8:00 PM, at the Walt Disney Concert Hall. Designed to increase access to the arts for Los Angeles County Third Supervisorial District constituents, the Supervisor Day initiative will introduce residents to the LA Phil through a special performance and pre-concert reception at no cost. As part of the Supervisor Day initiative, designed to expand arts access across Los Angeles County, residents can enjoy a complimentary live performance and pre-concert reception. This event offers local families a unique opportunity to engage with the arts and experience one of LA's premier cultural landmarks at no cost.

The upcoming "Tchaikovsky's Fourth Symphony" performance will feature the Los Angeles Philharmonic performing Tchaikovsky's celebrated Fourth Symphony, a powerful orchestral work known for its dramatic intensity and expressive melodies. To support participation of Third District constituents attending the performance on November 13, 2026, waiving parking fees will reduce a barrier to attendance and help
