Public Comment on Items

VIII. NEW BUSINESS

- A. Consideration of possible resolution in support of AB 847, a California State Assembly bill that, if enacted, would amend Penal Code § 832.7a to allow law enforcement oversight commissions to access otherwise confidential information in order to carry out their duties to provide oversight, provided that such commissions maintain confidentiality.

Attachments: AB 847. Legislation to amend Penal Code Section 832.7

Summary of AB 847

Draft Resolution in Support of AB 847 as of 4.13.25

Action Item: Resolution of the Commission expressing its support for AB 847

- B. Creation of a new Interview Panel Ad Hoc Committee to lead the interview process to fill the Commissioner position vacated on March 20, 2025.

Action Item: Motion to approve the creation of an Interview Panel Ad Hoc Committee.

- C. Discussion on whether a new Ad Hoc Nominating Committee is needed and desirable for the election of new officers on the Commission. The committee members, none of whom would be in consideration for Chair or Vice-Chair(s), would be responsible for selecting a slate of nominees for Commission officer positions to be presented to the full Commission at its June meeting, ahead of the Commission's Annual Meeting in July (in the bylaws). At the June meeting, the floor will also be open for any Commissioner to be nominated for office, in addition to the slate. The agenda for the Annual Meeting shall list those Commissioners who have accepted nominations for the positions of Chair and Vice Chair, who will have an opportunity to provide statements on their qualifications. This committee will disband upon the election of new officers.

Action Item: Possible Motion to approve the creation of a Nominating Ad Hoc Committee, which will be temporary and dissolved once its task is completed.
