SECTION 1. Applicability. These bylaws apply to the Los Angeles County Countywide Criminal Justice Coordination Committee (“CCJCC”) and are adopted pursuant to the authority vested to the Executive Committee by motion of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors (“Board”) adopted on January 7, 2025.

SECTION 2. Authority. CCJCC is an advisory body established in 1981 by the Board to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of the local criminal justice system. This body brings together top leaders in criminal justice and local government to form a unique policy-level forum with the overall purpose to strengthen interagency coordination, communication, and cooperation.

SECTION 3. Members. The membership of the CCJCC includes the members as listed in Appendix A to these bylaws.

SECTION 4. Alternates/Proxies. Members are permitted to designate an alternate/proxy, who, when sitting in the member’s absence, will have the same rights as the member they represent.

CHAPTER 2. OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Chair. The Chair of the Board shall serve as the Chair of the CCJCC. The Chair’s duties include, among others, presiding over all meetings, organizing and managing the agenda for committee meetings, instructing staff on materials to be presented at subsequent meetings, responding to members’ requests for information, signing communications on behalf of the CCJCC, and representing the CCJCC.

SECTION 2. Chair Pro Tem. The Chair shall designate a Chair Pro Tem, who, in the absence of the Chair, shall have the same authority as the Chair.

CHAPTER 3. MEETINGS

SECTION 2. Quorum. A majority of the total membership shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of conducting a meeting of the CCJCC.

SECTION 3. Voting. Voting shall be conducted based on the members present, assuming there is a quorum for the purpose of conducting a meeting.

SECTION 4. Regular Meetings. The CCJCC shall meet, at a minimum, every other month until and unless an alternative schedule of meetings is established. The alternative schedule may be established by the Executive Committee or the general CCJCC membership via a majority vote of the members present, assuming there is quorum. The Chair retains discretion to cancel, postpone, or change the time of a meeting.

SECTION 5. Special Meetings. Special meetings may be called in the manner provided by the Brown Act.

SECTION 7. Agenda Items. Items may be placed on the agenda in consultation with and approval of the Chair.

SECTION 8. Motions and Seconds. Every motion requires a second prior to a vote. Motions and seconds may be made by any member of the CCJCC or their authorized proxy/alternate.

CHAPTER 6. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Members of the public may address the CCJCC consistent with the Brown Act. To increase public participation, the CCJCC may provide additional means by which members of the public can observe or address the CCJCC.

CHAPTER 7. AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

These bylaws may be amended at any meeting of the Executive Committee by a majority vote of members present, assuming there is quorum. CHAPTER 8. SUSPENSION OF BYLAWS

Any bylaw may be temporarily suspended by a majority vote of members present. A temporary suspension of any bylaw cannot conflict with applicable laws and the Board's actions, including the January 7, 2025 Board motion establishing the Executive Committee of the CCJCC.

CHAPTER 9. PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with applicable laws, these bylaws, and the Board's actions, including the January 7, 2025 Board motion establishing the Executive Committee of the CCJCC.
