

POC TOWNHALL

2024 INSPECTIONS:

Los Padrinos Juvenile Hall

&

Barry J. Nidorf-Secure Youth Treatment Facility

Inspections Overview:

- Each calendar year, POC inspects each Probation detention facility
- Inspections are a snapshot of what occurred that day
- Reports are compiled from:
 - POC Commissioner and staff experiences
 - Interviews with youth, Probation staff, co-located departments, program providers
 - Probation feedback
 - References to Board Motions, Reports, and other resources

Los Padrinos Juvenile Hall

- Overpopulation, violence, and volatility in some units
- Girls' Needs Unmet
- Improvements in Professional Partnerships
- Insufficient Programming and Inaccurate Schedules
- Too Many Substitutes in Place of Long-Term Relationships
- Disorganized and Inconsistent Approaches to Supervision and Facility Planning

Barry J. Nidorf- Secure Youth Treatment Facility

- Trauma-Informed Intentional Language that Aligned with Actions
- Remarkable Improvements in Programs and Services
- Developmental Stage System (DSS) Adoption and Outcomes
- Increased and Improved Communication with most Co-Located Partners

Thank you for listening

- Next Up: Commissioner comments and reflections