

A Helping Hand

Everyday life can move fast, and sometimes we need a little help staying on track. If you're facing difficult emotions or tackling a tough situation, we're here to support you.

The Employee Assistance Program (EAP) offers free, confidential counseling services designed to put you first. Simply give us a call to schedule an appointment with one of our licensed professionals.

We're Here for You

In 1981, the County of Los Angeles Board of Supervisors launched the Employee Assistance Program (EAP). Since then, EAP has been devoted to enriching the lives of our employees and their families.

Why Choose Us

Our licensed professionals offer counseling and referral services at no cost to you. You and your dependents can attend up to three (3) in-person or telephonic sessions every six (6) months. If you need services outside of EAP's scope, we'll refer you to other resources. In many cases, we'll recommend services provided by your health plan.

How We Can Help

We specialize in a range of emotional health topics, including:

Stress management

Improving relationships

Grief and bereavement

Addiction

Mental well-being

Family and/or interpersonal conflicts

Professional development

... And more

We Keep It Confidential

Your privacy matters. EAP records are kept securely in our office, and they're not available to others. No one will know you called or attended a counseling session, unless you disclose this information to others.

Attending Your First Counseling Session?

For your first visit to EAP, you can use "County time" or personal time. If you use County time, you must inform your supervisor before your appointment; you do not have to disclose the purpose of your appointment.

EAP for Managers and Supervisors

Through our group trainings and individual consultations, we'll help you bring out the best in yourself and your team.

Group Support

We host professional training sessions for Department teams, covering topics such as:

- Managing stress and emotions
- Communicating effectively
- Building work relationships
- Dealing with grief and loss
- Coping with job changes
- . . . And more

Keep in mind: Trainings must be requested by Department representatives, and most sessions require a minimum of 10 participants.

Individual Consultation Services

We also offer consultation opportunities for managers and supervisors. Our clinicians can help you address:

- Declining employee performance
- Attendance issues
- Reviving morale
- Interpersonal concerns
- . . . And more

Specific trainings are also available to managers and supervisors, including:

- Reasonable Suspicion/Drug-Free Workplace Policy
- Department of Transportation (DOT) Rules and Regulations for Safety-Sensitive Employees

Contact us to schedule a group training or an individual consultation.

About Us

Here at EAP, we help make the County an excellent place to work. Our program is designed to:

- Maintain a productive and effective workforce
- Support employees and their families through free, confidential counseling services
- Encourage employees to do their best, on and off the job
- Train employees in order to boost their performance and professional growth
