Indian Country Today: Domestic Violence Awareness
& Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls

DATE & TIME:

Thursday, March 21, 2024

1:00PM - 4:00PM

All registration is completed on EventsHub prior to the training. Check-in begins 15 minutes prior the training time. All participants must arrive during the Check-in period. Late arrivals will not be admitted.

PLACE:

Training will be delivered via Microsoft Teams. A confirmation email reminder will be emailed to training participants one week before the training date.

REGISTRATION: <https://eventshub.dmh.lacounty.gov/>

This training will begin by educating attendees by providing historical lessons on Indian relations in the state of California and the United States. Next a brief overview of Domestic Violence Awareness will be provided as well as shared information on Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls in the Native communities. The training will address issues related to cultural, social and historical factors that have had and continue to have a significant impact on the lives of Native women who are victims of domestic violence. Missing and murdered indigenous women and girls represent the continuum of violence related to sexual assault, sex trafficking, domestic violence, stalking and dating violence. An overview of Domestic Violence as well as information on Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls will be discussed. This training will also address advocacy, resources, shelters, and other information associated with Native Domestic Violence programs.

TARGET AUDIENCE: DMH Staff and Contract Providers Only

OBJECTIVES:

As a result of attending this training, participants should be able to:

- 1) Define Domestic Violence (DV)
- 2) Explain the continued impact of DV and historical factors on AI/ANs people today.
- 3) Describe the different types of Domestic Violence and rates among AI/AN women as well as data from the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls.
- 4) Identify different advocacy interventions in working with victims of DV as well as for the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls.
