Student Professional Development Program

Description of Site: (Please describe the type of Agency setting and services offered)

Mental Evaluation Team (MET) in collaboration with the Los Angeles County Sheriff Department (LASD) responds to field emergency crisis calls involving individuals in distress with suspected or identified mental health symptoms.

MET-RAMP team is comprised of a Deputy Sheriff and a mental health clinician who co-respond post 911 crisis to provide intensive case management. RAMP teams address the needs of patients with serious mental illness who meet certain criteria, including extensive history of violence, increase in high-risk behaviors, suicide by cop threats, etc. The RAMP team concept is a combination of intensive case management, patient advocacy and linkage to mental health services.
