3 Great Ways to Celebrate Earth Day

Earth Day is April 22, and there's plenty happening to help you celebrate.

- 1. Motor vehicles are behind most of the emissions that cause smog. To encourage people to try transit instead of driving alone, rides will be free all day on Metrolink, OC Bus, Metro Bus/Rail, Riverside Transit Agency, Sunline Transit Agency fixed-route service and all San Bernardino County and Ventura County transit providers.
- 2. Do you live or work in the Inland Empire? You'll have a chance to win prizes, including an Apple Watch, gift cards, whale watching tickets and more when you rideshare in April.

To participate:

- Create or log into your account at IECommuter.org.
- Sign up for the promotion at IECommuter.org/EarthDay.
- Throughout April, log any day you rideshare or telework. Each day logged is an entry into the prize drawing.
- 3. Attend an "eco fashion show." Metrolink is hosting a fashion competition on April 22 at L.A. Union Station. The show will feature fashions designed by local students recycling or upcycling items otherwise destined for the landfill.

Metrolink OC Service Resumes

Metrolink fully restored rail service through the San Clemente last month—ahead of the projected schedule. It had been suspended last January due to debris from the hillside slope falling onto the railroad tracks.

More Safety Officers on Buses

Santa Monica's Big Blue Bus recently introduced a team of uniformed safety officers stationed on key routes and stops. They help riders navigate the bus and rail system and address any safety and maintenance concerns.

Similar programs have been launched at L.A. Metro with its Metro Ambassadors and Victor Valley Transportation Center's Safe Rides program.

Vine Street Mobility Hub Now Open

Riverside commuters have a new transit hub to make transfers easier: the Vine Street Mobility Hub. Near the Riverside-Downtown Metrolink Station, it is served by Riverside Transit Agency and Omnitrans buses with connections with Metrolink trains.
