ARTICLE 22            GRIEVANCES - GENERAL IN CHARACTER

- A.     Where the UAPD has reason to believe that Management is not correctly interpreting or applying any of the provisions of this Memorandum of Understanding, the UAPD may request in writing that a meeting be held with the authorized representatives of the County who have authority to make effective recommendations for the resolution of the matter with copies to the Department Heads involved and to the Chief Administrative Office. Such written request shall set forth in detail the facts giving rise to the request for the meeting and shall set forth the proposed resolution sought.

Within five business days of receipt of the request for such a meeting, the parties will meet for the purpose of discussing and attempting to resolve the disagreement.

- B.     Within ten business days of such meeting, and in the event the matter is not satisfactorily resolved; the UAPD shall have the right to meet with the principal representative(s) of the County who have authority to resolve the matter. For purposes of this provision, Management's principal representative(s) shall mean its Chief Administrative Office or his authorized representative, and any other County Department Head or his authorized representative, who has authority to resolve this matter.

- C. Within ten business days after the meeting provided in (B). above, if the matter is not satisfactorily resolved, and if the disagreement meets the requirements of Section 6 of Article 21 the disagreement may be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of Section 6 of Article 21 of this Memorandum of Understanding.

It is further understood that this Article is not intended as a substitute or alternative for the grievance procedures set forth in Article 21 of this Memorandum of Understanding. Instead, this Article is intended to provide a procedure to resolve disagreements affecting the rights of the parties or disagreements arising from the application of the terms of this Memorandum of Understanding affecting the working conditions of a significantly large number of the employees in the Unit, as distinguished from the rights of individual employees. Accordingly, the parties agree that the procedures set forth herein shall not be implemented where the dispute or complaint involved is or could be effectively brought by an employee or employees, and otherwise processed through the grievance procedures set forth in Article 21 hereof.

Such notification shall include the nature of his/her business for which time off is requested and the estimated time of his/her absence. The immediate supervisor will authorize the steward to leave his/her work to process such a grievance unless compelling circumstances require refusal of such permission, in which case the immediate supervisor shall inform the steward of the reasons for the denial and establish an alternate time when the steward can reasonably be expected to be released from his/her work assignment. The steward shall notify his/her supervisor upon his/her return to work.
- C. When a steward desires to contact an employee at his/her work location, the steward shall first contact the immediate supervisor of that employee, advise him/her of the nature of his/her business, and obtain the permission of the supervisor to meet with the employee. The immediate supervisor will make the employee available promptly unless compelling circumstances prohibit the employee's availability, in which case the supervisor will notify the steward when he/she can reasonably expect to contact the employee.

To qualify for this additional compensation a full-time permanent employee must either:

1. Be assigned to a special project or assignment which requires the performance of additional duties and carries additional responsibilities beyond those typically allocated to the employee's class. The assignment of additional duties normally performed by incumbents of the employee's class would not qualify for this compensation. The bonus for being assigned a special project or assignment shall be two standard salary schedules; or

The bonus shall be two standard salary schedules unless the difference between the employee's class and the higher level class is less than two standard salary schedules. In this case, the bonus shall be the difference between the two classes.

The bonus provision of paragraph 2 above does not apply to employees on short term higher level assignments of two weeks or less.

The additional compensation shall begin on the first day the additional responsibilities are assigned by management and shall end on the day the additional responsibilities are no longer performed. Management shall notify the employee of the termination of any assignment for which he or she qualifies for the additional responsibilities bonus. In no event shall an employee receive compensation pursuant to this Section and receive the out-of-class bonus pursuant to Article 40, Out-of-Class Assignments for the same assignment.

The additional compensation provided in this Section shall not constitute a base rate.

Section 2.            Conditions

- A. If an employee is assigned to an out-of-class assignment for more than 20 consecutive working days, management shall upon the employee's or UAPD's written request for relief either:

appoint the employee according to Civil Service Rules; If the person is appointed within 30 calendar days from the date of request for relief, no bonus under this Article is paid;

Return the employee to an assignment in his/her own class. If such return is made within 30 calendar days of the request for relief, no bonus under this Article is to be paid, or pay the employee the bonus. The bonus is paid from the date of request for relief and terminates when the conditions of this Article are no longer met.

The bonus is not applicable to persons employed on a temporary, recurrent, or less than full-time basis.

- B. It is the intent of management to avoid working an employee on an out-of-class for a prolonged period of time.

Section 3.                    Special Provisions

- A. Nothing herein shall be construed to limit the authority of management to make temporary assignments to different or additional locations, shifts or work duties for the purpose of meeting emergency situations over which the department has no control. However, such assignment shall not extend beyond the period of emergency.
- B. Nothing in this Article shall be construed as limiting management's authority to make temporary incidental assignments on higher rated classification work, or to assign employees out-of-class for the purpose of training without any additional compensation for the duration of such training. Written confirmation of such assignment will be placed in the employee's personnel file upon request of the employee.
