Los Angeles County Unincorporated Communities Annual Report
Marina del Rey (Supervisorial District 2)
Fiscal Year: July 1, 2024 – June 30, 2025

Advancing Transparency Across Our Communities

This is Los Angeles County's (County) Unincorporated Communities Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2024-25, continuing an important partnership between the County and unincorporated area residents. The County is providing this comprehensive overview to help residents understand the scope of public services and the impact of investments in their neighborhoods.

What is an Unincorporated Area?

County unincorporated areas are communities that are not part of any of the County's 88 incorporated cities. Instead, governance and representation are provided by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors—fulfilling the role that a Mayor and City Council would play in an incorporated city.

There are more than 120 unincorporated areas with a total population of approximately 1 million residents. One out of every 10 County residents lives in an unincorporated community. These communities also cover a significant portion of the County's geography—2,600 square miles, or about two-thirds its total land area.

The Board of Supervisors establishes policies and regulations that benefit all unincorporated area residents, while County departments provide the municipal services and infrastructure—such as law enforcement, firefighting, trash collection, road maintenance, and parks—that residents depend on every day.

Report Focus

At the direction of the Board of Supervisors, the annual report reviews services and investments made in the previous fiscal year for each of the 28 unincorporated communities with a population of over 10,000.

The County has invested billions of dollars in these communities, including significant resources for municipal services, quality-of-life programs, and construction and maintenance of public facilities and infrastructure. The annual report captures information from numerous County departments to enhance transparency and accountability, enabling the public to track the County's progress, celebrate successes, and identify opportunities for continued improvement.

Annual reports for each community are available on the County's Municipal and Unincorporated Area Services website at lacounty.gov/muas.

LA County's Regional Services

Beyond local services specific to your community, the County also delivers countywide services that benefit everyone—from hospitals and museums to election services and emergency management.
