IV. New Business

a. JJRBG Subcommittee Presentation of the JJRBG Annual Plan for FY 2022-2023

Adam Bettino, Chief Deputy, Probation Department, indicated he would provide a high-level overview regarding the recent planning stages of the JJCC-Juvenile Justice Realignment Block Grant (JJRBG) Subcommittee's work. Following the overview, he indicated he would defer to the JJCC-JJRBG Subcommittee members regarding any additional input they might wish to provide. He stated that they were in the process of finalization of the JJRBG Annual Plan for FY 2022-23, prior to submission to the Board of Supervisors for Wednesday, November 3, 2022. He stated that the plan is a fluid and flexible document. The JJCC-JJRBG Subcommittee members attempted to prioritize the areas of greatest concern and attempted to pinpoint the greatest programmatic needs regarding Secure Track Youth. He stated the addition to the plan included a robust Credible Messenger program description and planning. An enhanced Credible Messenger plan will serve Secure Track youth throughout programming (during detainment and upon release to the community). Members of the Subcommittee worked to include the addition of a supportive structure to the Credible Messenger portion of the plan with the intention of enhancing it in the future. Credible Messengers will complement the existing County staff including Probation, and their partners in Education, Mental Health, Public Health, and others who work through the institutions that will serve the youth. The demographic data trends were updated through August 2021. The final significant plan update included information regarding facility evaluations. The Board of Supervisors asked the JJCC-JJRBG Subcommittee to take a deeper look into each of the facilities as they currently exist and determine which of the facilities were feasible and which facilities may not be feasible for the youth population. The JJCC-JJRBG Subcommittee, an architecture firm, and Los Angeles County Public Works completed substantial work which included facilities evaluations and discussion occurred regarding which facilities were most feasible. He stated the most feasible sites continued to be Campus Kilpatrick, (as a short-term option) Camp Scott, and Camp Paige, or Camp Afflerbaugh. Dorothy Kirby Center was being considered for young women. As of November 2, 2021, the number of Secure Track Youth consisted of no young women and thirteen (13) young men. He stated the JJRBG Annual Plan for FY 2022-23 was ready for submission, however, quite a bit of work was due to be completed regarding programming and required security facility enhancements. He stated community engagement meetings were scheduled and pending for both the City of Santa Clarita and the City of La Verne. He invited the JJCC-JJRBG Subcommittee members to speak, or if they had questions about the plan. He then called for any JJCC Member Discussion on the item. Audio Time stamp: 23:56-31:05, 31:40-32:32
